THE BAPTIST CHURCH.

A large congregational meeting of the First Baptist Church was held yesterday morning. The usual exercises were held up to the time of preaching services which latter was given over to a special exercise. The pastor, Rev. W. E. Watson, assisted by Deacons Adam Martin, J. R. N. Curtin, D. W. Schofield, Wm. Jorg and Mrs. J. H. Mansfield and Mrs. J. T. Harrison, president, and secretary respectively of the Ladies' Aid Society, then destroyed by burning a note on the paragon—evidence of indebtedness of the church. During the burning of the note the congregation stood and sang the doxology. The pastor then announced that the church being free from debt, it was prepared to take up greater things. Mr. Jas. R. Mansfield addressed the church on the proposed improvement to the Sunday school room and church auditorium and explained in detail the plans and specifications, which in the main comprise a two-story annex for Sunday school class rooms; changing entrances to church auditorium; an open baptistry; the organ arranged in a balcony gallery over baptistry; increased class rooms in lecture room; decorating both upper and lower rooms; painting of exterior of building; electric lights for main auditorium, and many other attractive features to add to an architecturally beautiful building. Mr. E. C. Joyce presented the scheme of financing the proposed improvements, and concluding by submitting the recommendations of the official board, which carried an expenditure of approximately $8,000. Messrs. E. C. Joyce, J. T. Harrison, Carroll Pierce, J. R. Mansfield, and C. A. Howard were appointed to handle the financial end of the project. Messrs. J. R. N. Curtin, Wm. Jorg, D. W. Schofield, J. T. Harrison and C. A. Howard were designated as the building committee to take charge of the work.

NEW ADDITION TO STORE.

With the throwing open to the public today of the new big addition to the already large apartment store of Brager of Baltimore, the twenty-seventh successful year of the business of Mr. A. Brager is brought to a triumphant close. The addition is on the site formerly occupied by two stores, known as Nos. 225 and 227 north Eutaw street, and which immediately adjoined the addition to the store, 229 north Eutaw street. With No. 229, the two stores form the Eutaw street five-story and basement wing, corresponding with the Saratoga street five-story and basement wing built in 1896. This makes the present store, though square on the ground, really a huge "L," with a low structure included. Mr. A. Brager was born in Alexandria, Va. He was the son of the late Joseph Brager, and went to Baltimore when a boy.

SUICIDE.

H. C. Eberman, about 40 years old, superintendent of the District of Columbia incinerating plant at Cherry Hill, about sixteen miles south of Alexandria, on the line of the Washington Southern Railway, committed suicide Saturday evening by drinking carbolic acid. Mr. Eberman had given evidence of despondency during the past three weeks. The deceased was a forty-second degree member of the Masonic fraternity, connected with all the higher branches in Alexandria, and an officer in Occoquan Lodge of Masons. The remains were taken to Brooklyn, N. Y., today and placed in a vault. They were accompanied by the union station by a delegation of Alexandria Masons. Mr. Eberman leaves a widow.

Norman Willis, colored, charged with gambling and stealing coke from the gas works, was fined $15. George Minick, charged with being drunk in the street, was fined $5.

THE WEATHER.

The weather during most of yesterday was mild and fair. Cloudy conditions followed later in the day and there were light rains during the night. Storms and cold weather generally throughout the country in the prediction of the Weather Bureau for this week. A series of storms of marked intensity will cross the United States, and temperature changes preceding and following these disturbances will be decided.

KITTY AND JACK MARTIN.

The pair comes highly recommended and the amusement lovers will be afforded a rare treat. In addition to this most excellent feature there will be added two other acts of high standing which was booked too late to receive notice. Matinee on Wednesday.

FINED FIFTEEN DOLLARS.

Norman Willis, colored, was arrested yesterday by Officer Sampson charged with stealing coke from the city gas works. When arraigned in the Police Court this morning he was also charged with taking a watch and 85 cents from a colored man. Ladies! Combine style with solid comfort. Wear the RED CROSS SHOE, to be had only at our store, J. A. Marshall & Bro., 422 King street.

CHRIST CHURCH HEATING PLANT.

The very earnest effort being made by the congregation of Christ Church to raise funds to pay off the indebtedness on the heating plant now being placed in the church, should enlist the sympathy and aid of every citizen of our town, in fact of everyone far and near, who may be interested in the preservation of this historic building. For sometime past the condition of the furnace has given anxiety to the rector and vestry, and after examining into safer modes of heating the church, they recently decided upon having the plant placed in the parish hall and connected with the church by pipes even though the distance between the buildings is considerable. While this of course, insures the church against injury by fire for the future, it has entailed a very heavy debt upon it, which its members are exerting every effort to meet. It is to help raise funds for this purpose that the ladies of the Parish Aid Society decided upon holding a bazaar on Wednesday and Thursday of this week, and it is earnestly to be hoped that the effort thus made may meet with a hearty response from all of our citizens, irrespective of church or creed, this preservation of our historic buildings and antiquities being common ground on which all should meet, who reverence that which connects us with the past.

CONCERT.

At the concert to be given tomorrow evening by the choir of St. Paul's Church, the regular soloists, Mrs. Elizabeth De Dier's selection will be "A Gypsy Maiden," by Parker; Mrs. Sherman B. Fowler will sing "The Beautiful Land of Nod," by Greene; Mr. Edwin Witman, "Beauty's Eyes," by Tosti; Mr. Wilmer Waller, "Goodbye," by Tosti; and Mr. Richard Wirt, "The Bandaleio," by Stuart. The accompanists will be Miss Katherine Waller and Mr. Sherman B. Fowler. The work of all these musicians, and those heretofore mentioned, is well known to an Alexandria audience, and the concert promises to repeat the success of those heretofore given by this choir. The beautiful grand piano which will be used is from the store of Sanders and Stayman on King street.

A TRIBUTE.

In a letter to Capt. Irving A. Burk, sending a liberal contribution to the monument, Col. Arthur Herbert, of Alexandria, the distinguished commander of the 17th Va. Infantry, says: "(Major) Simpson was promoted Lieut. Col. of the regiment. He was a brave man with many noble traits of character. I am glad to hear of your success in raising funds for monument. I had not heard of it before. But of this I am sure, that if the men of Co. B, of the 17th, were a fair representation of those whose names you wish to hand down to posterity as worthy of commemoration, you will make no mistake. I was glad to get Capt. Lehigh's message; it warms my heart to be remembered by men of my old command."

Col. Herbert was a splendid soldier and he is greatly beloved by the old boys.—[Warren Sentinel.]

Battle Near Chihuahua City. Mexico City, Nov. 28.—Sixteen revolutionists and one federal soldier were killed, and more than fifty troops were wounded in a battle near Chihuahua City, according to official advices here today. Captain Fernandez, of the federal cavalry, was fatally wounded.

The engagement continued practically all day between four hundred rebels and about six hundred government troops. The fighting was brought on by the revolutionists, who ambushed a cavalry troop between Chihuahua and Fresno, in Chihuahua state. The troops were marching toward Fresno under the leadership of General Navarro. The separated troops immediately rejoined the rear guard, which was in perilous position upon a fierce fire from the rebels. The troops held in the roadway returned the fire from both sides, soon routing the rebels. Twice again the revolutionists were repulsed and they finally fled to the mountains, leaving their dead where they had fallen.

Troops are pursuing the rebels through the mountains in an effort to reach and destroy their camp. Following the abandonment of the Sunday promenade by the capital society set a week ago, the bull fight was not attempted yesterday and the city remained quiet throughout the day.

Young Woman Is Charged with Murder Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 28.—The old, old, three cornered story and romance and tragedy loomed up in East Cambridge Court today, when the trial of pretty, petite, 17-year-old Hattie Le Blanc for the murder of Clarence F. Glover, of Waltham, was begun.

The whole life story of the pretty little French Canadian house maid and her relations with the wealthy Waltham laundry proprietor are expected to be thrashed out in the course of the trial.

Mrs. Lillian Glover, widow of the murdered man, is expected to be a prominent figure in the trial. Three days after Glover, dying in the office of his laundry, accused Hattie Le Blanc of shooting him, the girl was found hidden in the Glover home. Despite the fact that Mrs. Glover was acquitted of being an accessory before the fact, much interest is felt in the girl's story of those three days. Hattie Le Blanc admits that she met Glover by appointment the night he was murdered, but declares that he was shot just as she left him by someone who discovered them together. She fled to the Glover home and hid.

Pastor Decrees Big Hats. Haddon Heights, N. J., Nov. 28.—Classing women's hats as "obstructional," Rev. Percy E. Wilmont, pastor of the First Baptist Church, yesterday made an appeal to the feminine members of his congregation to remove their headgear during the sermon at least.

The pastor told his audience that he appreciated the beauty of their elaborate headpieces and that he recognized the circumstances which necessitated the wearing of them, but that the men in the audience deserve some honor for their presence, and the women should appreciate this fact by removing their hats. Every woman in the audience complied with the request. The hats came off.
